Memories, thoughts and dreams are concealed between the covers of our scrapbooks, and as these pages unfold we think of the things that have gone on before. In this, the year of Minnesota's Centennial, many scrapbooks are once again being opened. These pages are reflecting the past and recalling to mind many milestones in Minnesota's history.

It is not easy to think of the past without thinking of the present and the future also. As Schiller so aptly put it:

"Threefold the stride of Time, from first to last:
Loitering slow, the Future creepeth —
Arrow-swift, the Present sweepeth —
And motionless forever stands the Past."

Now as we turn the pages of our 1958 Vista we will reminisce, think and dream about our past, present and future.

Vergie,
Golly, wasn't that fun up at Marge's cabin!
you've really got a terrific sense of humor-
I'll never forget the Clarence's P.J. party!
Have fun and don't do anything I wouldn't!
Lotsa Luck,
Maxine

I'll be head of very luck to a very nice girl.
Marion J.

Vergie.
Don't forget the Marge fun we had at Marge cabin. I hope you are as Clara well as we are although I know it would be hard!
Jerry

Vergie,
Well here
we go for another year
I sure was really a panic. It never seem as a terrific sense of humor like you. My goodness you hate it, as I wants you hates
Good Bless, always.

MOUNDS VIEW HIGH SCHOOL

Dedication

To Mr. A. Pagenkopf—

Assistant Principal, Counselor, Friend . . .

As he casts a backward glance through the halls of Mounds View High School, Mr. Pagenkopf recalls many favorable memories of his past four years as our assistant principal. He has done an excellent job, using his understanding personality to make Mounds View a more pleasant school. I am sure he will continue his dedicated work in the years to come as the principal of the new Edgewood Junior High School.

To this man, whose service and sincere friendship are always extended to everyone, we, the Senior Class, dedicate our 1958 Vista.

Mr. Pagenkopf, his wife, his oldest son Charles and his younger son Richard.

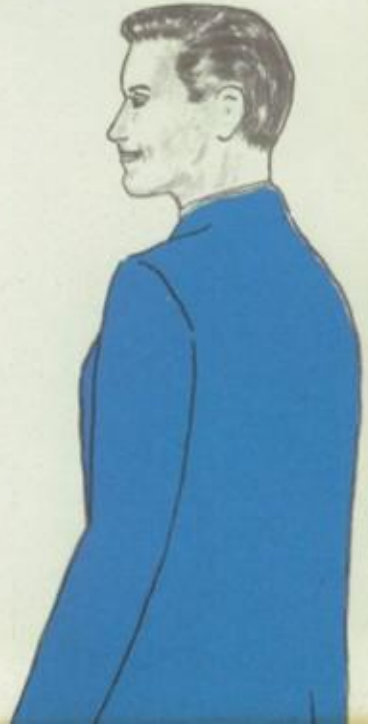
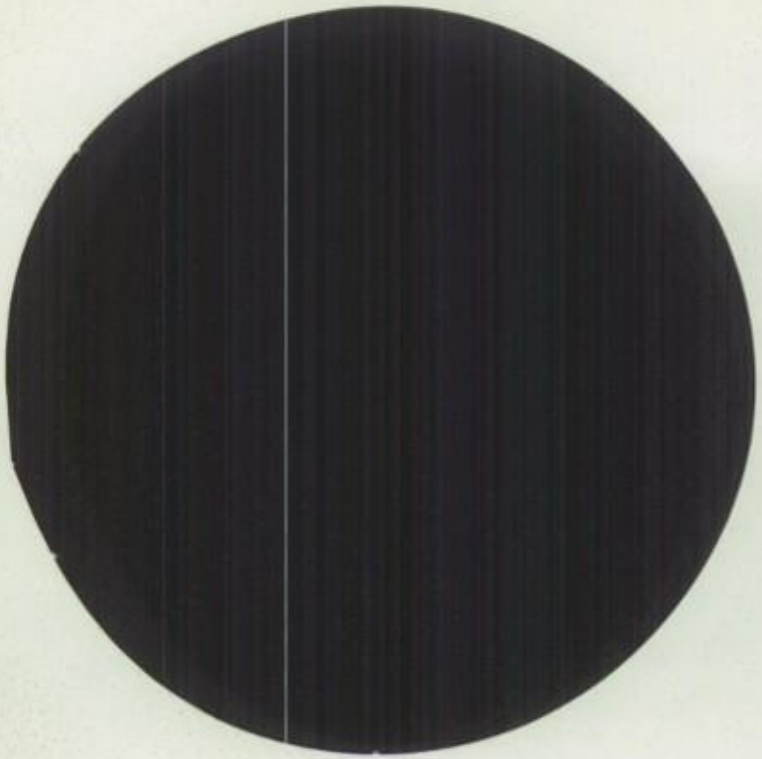
In this, Minnesota's Centennial year, we tend to think in terms of centuries. Let us look forward twenty-one years. We find Mounds View a quarter of a century old.

You will find the building looks quite different and the faculty has changed considerably. Perhaps the school year will have been extended.

But Mounds View will remain, and it is not vanity to hope that the message that it will have in 1979 will be the same as it had in 1954 and as it has today.

The theme which was used for American Education Week expresses beautifully what everyone here at Mounds View has been trying to say, "An educated people moves freedom forward."





Vergie,
I can't say,
"Have fun this summer", but I can say have fun in Speech class. I think we will. I hope
I'll get to know you better this year.
Bette

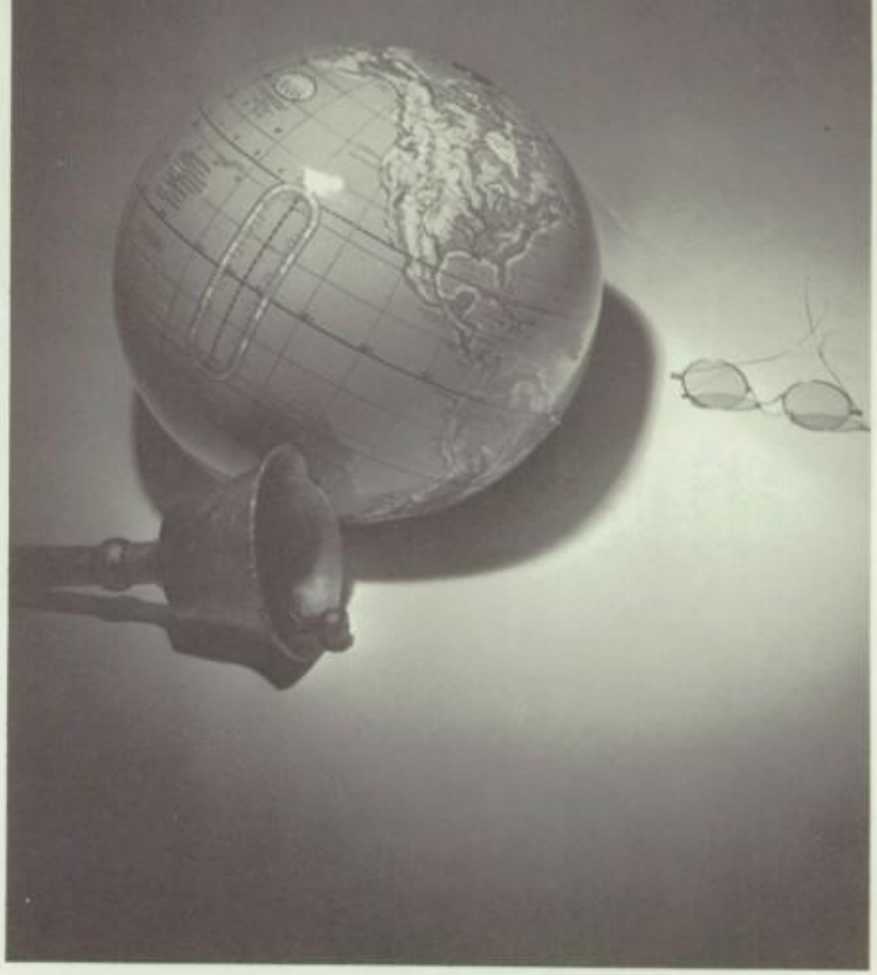
Mr. Reeder, Superintendent of Schools.

Mr. Resman, Administrative Assistant.



Administration

Mounds View has been under the excellent supervision of our administration headed by Superintendent of Schools Ralph Reeder.

Our administration has the responsibility of maintaining an atmosphere suited to the development of its students, both intellectually and socially. They have been concerned with having a competent faculty, an adequate library and good bus transportation. They met all these demands and more.

Our entire administration has shown kindness, tolerance and firmness, thereby gaining the respect of the student body and their fellow workers.

Mr. Kunze, Principal

Mr. Pagenkopf, Assistant Principal

Mr. Conover, Senior High Counselor

Faculty

Mr. Meyer, Mr. Sahli and Mr. G. Christenson catching up on world affairs.

Mr. Schultz and Mr. Hillborn talking over Minnesota's Centennial. Miss Daily not pictured.

Mr. Geske and Mr. Wegleitner discussing American History.

Mr. Brainard, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Gibson and Mr. Scribner demonstrating the tape recorder.

Mrs. Graves, Mr. Williams and Miss McDermott "chatting."

Three foreign language teachers, Mrs. Newton, Mrs. Palmer and Mr. Eggar.

In any vocation we may enter we will find it necessary to speak. In the English department the emphasis is on speaking correctly — in this way preparing us for the years to come. Along with speaking; reading, listening and writing hold important spots.

We aren't limited simply to learning English, for many students take advantage of the four foreign languages offered. These languages are Latin "Latine," French, "Francais," Spanish "espanol," and German, "Deutsch." Life would not offer much excitement without languages.

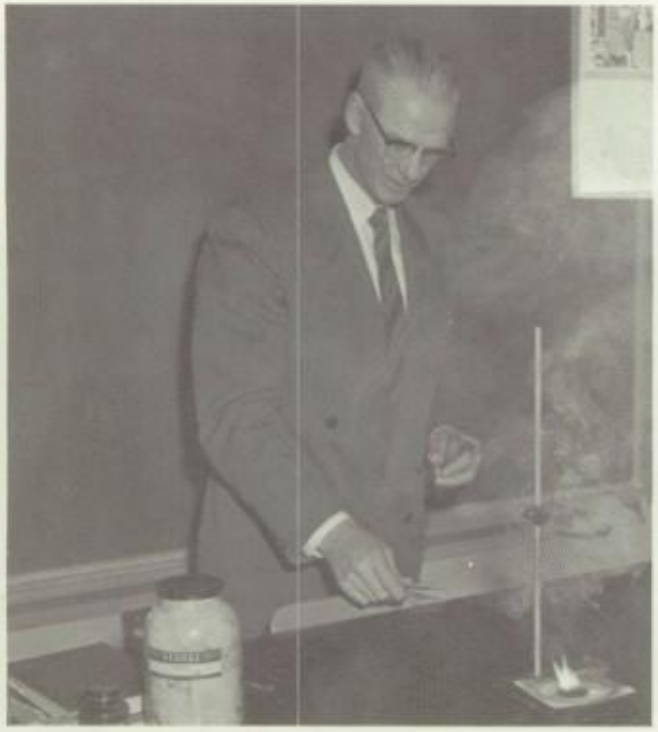
Mrs. Hallberg, Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Engeswick making use of the card catalogue in the library.

Mrs. Branes, choir director.

Mr. Carlson, orchestra director.

Mrs. Kranze teaching her first hour English class.

Mr. Wige, band director.

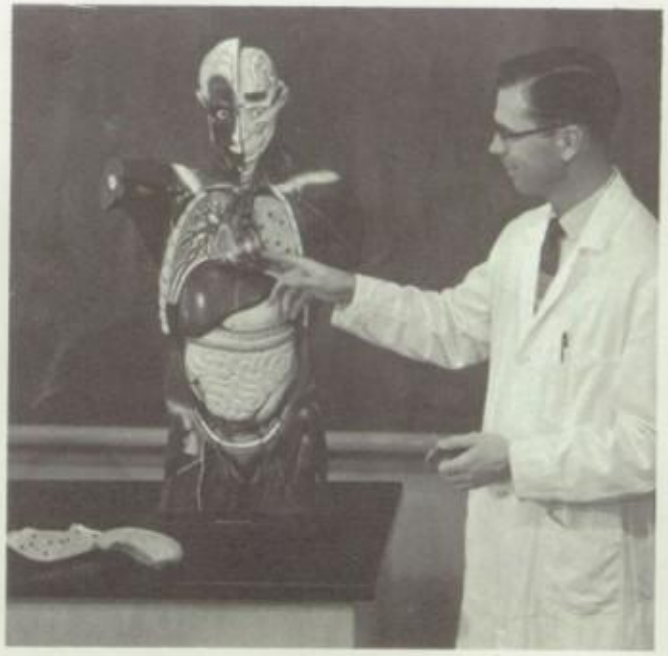


Mr. Anderson doing an experiment.

In this, the age of atoms, satallites and missiles, we realize the need for science and math. Courses are offered from general math and science up through solid geometry, trigonometry and physics. We are fortunate to have the equipment necessary for many things. Our chemistry room has everything from a glass tube to a bunsen burner. Biology students look forward to disecting ascarides, fish and frogs.

The teachers urge outside projects for those especially interested and talented. Students realizing their opportunities, willingly take part in these projects. All these things work together to promote interest and knowledge in the science field.

Mr. Zaworski, Mr. Heyer and Mr. Leonard, talking "over" the aquarium.



Mr. Van Hooser pointing out the circulatory system on the manikin.

Mr. Nelson, Mr. McManus and Mr. Nyhus illustrating the co-ordinate system.

Math teachers Mr. Helstrom and Mrs. Peterson.

Science is important and interesting.

Mr. Ray and Mr. Wendorf checking their P.O. boxes.

"Who wears short shorts?" Our girls physical education teachers: Miss Mertens, Miss Swanson and Miss Wiig.

Mr. Rajacich, Mr. Geurts and Mr. Karjalahti watching the planer.

At the moment the basketball seems to be the center of Mr. Westlund, Mr. Bauer and Mr. T. Christensen's interest.

Realizing the importance of physical fitness for both boys and girls, it is required that all students take physical education through their sophomore year. For those students who feel they may want to be a physical education teacher, they can be a teacher's assistant. In this way they can find out if they should seriously consider doing this type of work. They will also pick up some helpful hints and teaching methods from our qualified teachers. Not only the physical education departments, but the other departments at Mounds View also offer opportunities for students to be teacher assistants. These teacher's assistants do some clerical work to relieve a little of the teacher's load.

Mrs. Newell, Mrs. Stockamp and Mr. H. Erickson checking over a typing book.

Famous last words, "Don't look at the camera." Mr. Ashwood, art teacher, and Mr. E. Erickson, Vista advisor.

There are some subjects that are required for students to take. Among these, English and social studies are taken through the senior year. Each year we have a chance to choose more elective courses. Some students may be interested in business education, others in art, industrial arts, or home economics.

Almost everyone is interested in driving because it is practically a necessity for this suburban district. In order to encourage better driving "behind the wheel" training is given.

This, of course, doesn't mention all of the elective courses offered at Mounds View. As we progress in years, we get more into the special type of classes we need and want for the future.

It looks like drivers training teachers Mr. Gebhard and Mr. Christopherson made it back to school safely.

Miss Kyamme and Mrs. Simonson mixing a batch of brownies.

Staff

Mrs. Lindstedt and Miss Ronholm checking out a "few" books.

District 621 office staff: Mrs. Vivian Drinnin, clerk, talking on the phone; Mrs. Lillian Frischmon, Sr. Administration secretary, typing; and Miss Marlene Ryback, bookkeeper, checking over papers.

The school nurse, Mrs. Anderson, giving a student an eye test.

We believe that healthy people are happy people. This is the reason stress is placed on good health at Mounds View. All students are given eye and ear tests, polio shots and mantoux tests.

This year we have a new eye chart which was made by Mr. Rajacich and Mr. Geurts of the industrial arts department.

Along with having healthy bodies we want to have healthy minds. The library is a good place to further develop healthy minds.

Mrs. Wige, Mrs. Morris and Miss Bluhm, working in the high school office.

This years expert cooks; V. Eisenman, J. Stadler, M. Rybak, R. Kolarsky, A. Debee, B. Markeson, M. Thibodeau and Miss Toop.

It looks like the teachers are trying to take the cooks jobs.

Our hard working custodians: 1st row — F. McDaniel, H. Seabloom, J. Paron. 2nd row — J. Wagner, J. Eisenman, C. Zweig. Not pictured — D. Hipp, A. Johnson and J. Jorgenson.

The custodians keep our school healthy by keeping it clean. They are on duty twenty-four hours a day, helping in numerous ways.

Through the entire school year the cooks are kept busy planning menus, preparing food and serving hungry students. Annually the men educators put on aprons and cook up a turkey dinner for the faculty. This is a tremendous chance for the men of Mounds View to show their "hidden" talents.

Senior Class Advisors

Class advisors show guidance in the various activities that affect the different classes.

The Christmas dance was the first big project of the year for the senior class. We didn't realize how necessary advisors were until decorating for the dance. Just as the crepe paper was almost complete, somehow it fell down. Mr. H. Erickson gave us encouragement to put it back up again. Many incidents such as this have made us thankful for our advisors.

Sue Sathre making popcorn with Mr. Conover, the chairman of the junior class advisors.

The senior class did many things as a unit during our years here at Mounds View.

First of all we all had English, social studies and history. We had these subjects different hours and sometimes we had different teachers, but we all had some common learning experiences. Not only did we compete and work together academically, but we competed and worked together socially.

We sponsored the first canteens ever held at Mounds View as sophomores. As juniors we worked hard and yet had fun working on the prom and Junior-Senior Banquet. Now as seniors we are busy with our car wash and picnic.

As we, the senior class of '58, receive our diplomas, a conclusion to our years at Mounds View is reached.

Mr. Kunze introducing the graduating class of 1958 at the Senior Assembly.

The Class of 1958 received their diplomas as a conclusion to their years at Mounds View High School. This impressive ceremony will be treasured in their memories along with the football games, in which we were Suburban Champions, basketball games, the Senior Prom, and class picnic.

The whirling maze of activities and studies which engulfed these seniors ended with commencement, and a new series of experiences and thrills have now begun.

These four years were a long hard pull mixed with moments of laughter and tears. Leaving all this behind, the Class of 1958 prepare for their journey into the future.

Verge,
Just think, we've almost through!
You guys like sure and Keep M.U. in good shape after we're gone, ok? We've sure had fun since fifth grade, haven't we? I know we'll always be the best of friends. Remember die deutschen klasse?? what a ball, huh? Lots of luck to one of the best of the juniors. Your terrific, Verge, always stay that way, ok?
Janet

Verge,
See! only two more
years more and school is out for us. It can't seem like we're juniors, does it?
Well, good luck in the coming two years.

Our school would not be complete without each class. We are concerned in this section with the peppy seventh graders all the way through the active juniors. Our halls will never be the same without our running, pushing, shoving seventh graders.

Each senior high class does more as a unit. Much class spirit is being shown by the juniors in planning the junior-senior prom and banquet.

Every spring each class elects officers for the following school year. These officers perform many important functions. Along with their individual class duties they are all representatives to the Student Council. These leaders of today will be the leaders of tomorrow!

Dear Veggie,

It seems funny writing in a yearbook now! We sure had fun this year - lots & lots of it. I'll never forget the spring dance. What a fun. All new faces. Remember the Reutschen Klapp Fuk? Reeeating was more fun than the dance! All the parties kids had were one big - All new car da Chris party - and when we came late to Hallemeiers. I won't forget the games we played for hours got together and I slept over shame - shame. We've got a lot to look forward to this year - and I'm sure it gonna be twice as much fun as last year! The very best of luck always - to a real friend -

Love,
Dana

Juniors

On entering school last fall there was no idea the work and fun that was ahead for our unsuspecting juniors. Basketball games where popcorn was made and sold and football games where they were in charge of concessions again.

The planning, building and decorating of the prom was the largest challenge faced by the Juniors, but with capable leaders like President, Mike Bauerschemidt; Vice President, Jerry Ashbach; and Secretary Treasurer, Judy Lanes, the prom was a huge success.

As the year becomes a thing of the past, Juniors look forward with anticipation and realization that they will now be the ruling Seniors.

Sophomores

The sophomore class, under the capable leadership of President, Donna Poshek, Vice President, Dick Boyum and Secretary Treasurer, Ray Gilbertson, added much to the spirit of Mounds View this year.

Everyone worked with enthusiasm on sponsoring and planning of the annual spring dance, which was held for the freshmen and sophomore classes. The tradidional canteens, which all enjoyed, proved again, to be successful.

Mrs. Morton, their advisor, guided them along this road of accomplishments.

As our sophomores gaze hopefully into their futures they see a fun-filled and even more adventurous Junior year ahead of them.

Freshmen

With the energy and inspiration these freshmen entered into the relm of Junior High, with not only a number as ninth but with the title of freshmen.

To carry and to make known this title were the officers and representatives of the class. President, Doug Erickson, Vice President, Jim Fisher and Secretary Treasurer, Judy Newell, displayed their leadership, not only in class activities but also in Junior Student Council projects.

Advised by Mr. Zaworski, the freshman class of 1958 has had a successful year and shall continue to have more.

These are the people who, pioneering the world of education shall seek to conquer it.

Eighth Grade

Awaiting the day of initiation into the realm of Senior High, our eighth graders prepare themselves. Their interests are aroused more each year by studies and activities. Leading them through this active year were: President, Jaynes Morse; Vice President, Paul Wicklund; Secretary Treasurer, Ron Johnson.

Something new has been added to girls' and boys' gym classes. Various dances were taught, helping to promote the Junior High dances. This was helpful and fun for all.

As time marches on, this class will march forward too. The halls of Mounds View will provide a pathway for their futures.

Seventh Grade

With wonderment, enthusiasm and excitement, the seventh graders started their first year at Mounds View. Electing capable officers was their first order of business. These people represented them in Junior Student Council for the year: President, Bob Ramsey; Vice President, Gary Hassel; and Secretary Treasurer, Joan Launmeyer.

At first their adventures through the halls were inquisitive, wide-eyed ones. Gradually they became acquainted with our halls and now they're the fastest things on two feet.

We will always remember our seventh graders with a smile. They will be missed as they adventure down the new halls of Edgewood Junior High.

Class Officers

Our class officers have led us with precision and enthusiasm through this year.

As representatives of their class they have contributed a great deal to Mounds View. By carrying suggestions from their fellow classmates and disputing problems concerning student affairs, they have been an asset to our Student Council.

This leadership has paved the way to successful ends. It has given them needed experience. They will use this experience in years to come as they become the citizens and parents of tomorrow.

In Memoriam

Mounds View's freshman class of 1958, suffered the loss of a friend and classmate, Donald Hammerstrom. Don, a quiet boy and hard worker, was admired and well liked by those who knew him.

Although his condition restrained him in sports and many of the school's more strenuous activities, he was quite active in his church, and in the geology division of the Science Club here at school.

Donald had undergone similiar surgery to help correct his condition previous to the open heart operation on April twenty-third, during which he passed away.

He will not be forgotten soon by his friends and companions, as he will remain forever, a part of their happy memories.

As the years progress the underclassmen will become our future adult citizens and leaders. Each to the best of his ability will contribute his talents toward the betterment of our nation.

As the students advance to higher grades they gain knowledge and start down the path of new experiences. Each advancement is a step toward a better and brighter future.

Each year will pass and each student will progress further and further into this world of unlimited opportunities.

Mr. Meyers leads a discussion concerning United Nations, in sixth period social studies.

Mounds Views' excellent academic program is not out-weighed by its extra curricular activities.

Each of our many clubs has a definite purpose stated in its constitution. The purpose of the Student Council, for example, is to encourage scholarship, good citizenship, and good school spirit and morale.

It is important for each student to join clubs that will satisfy his personal needs. With our many clubs each student should be able to find one or more that will be helpful to him now and in later life.

Through our many clubs we build better characters. We seek the ability to get along with others and strive to become democratic citizens.

Student Council

The Student Councils of Mounds View High School govern the student body of both Junior and Senior High. They make decisions through the representation of all students.

This year the Senior Student Council sponsored the Homecoming Parade, Coronation, and Dance. The Junior Council helped in this project by selling buttons. The Sno-Day was completely a Senior Council project.

The high-lite of this year was the Student Council Convention held at our school. Over thirty-three schools attended.

Presiding over the Senior Council was Dan Bamberry. Assisting him was Mike Bauerschmidt, V. Pres.; and Kathie Mickschl, Sec. Treas.

The choir has a fine record. For the past three years it has received an "A" rating in the District Music Contest.

Presiding over the choir this year was Wesley Wold. Assisting him was vice president Jim Kerr, secretary Karleen Edstedt and treasurer Rudy Cardenas.

Band

The Mounds View High School Band is kept busy the year around. They march for football games in the fall and give both a Christmas and Spring concert.

This year the District Band Contest was held at Mounds View. Our Band received a "B + " rating. However, most of the ensembles and solos received an "A" rating. This is encouraging for the bands in the future.

The ensemble groups are becoming more and more popular. A few students have formed a dance band, The Rollettes, which plays for school activities. They earn money for their music by sponsoring Junior and Senior High dances.

The work of the business staff is selling the Vista, financing our Annual by showing movies to the student body and promoting and collecting subscriptions.

The Juniors of the Vista staff gain valuable experience in editing the "Buzz Book."

Their biggest projects this year were the planning and sponsoring of the Talent Show at the Carnival and the decorating and planning of the Valentine Dance and Coronation.

Pennants were sold during football season by the Art Club. The advisor, Mr. Ashwood, assisted them when help was needed in the process of making these pennants.

The FTA is composed of students who are interested in becoming teachers. The main objective of the club is to create an interest in education. Students learn the qualifications for college entrance and what courses are required. Many of the members have visited surrounding grade schools and have taught for a day giving them some basic ideas and experiences in teaching.

Future Nurses

Future Nurses, advised by Mrs. Anderson, helps prepare girls sincerely interested in nursing for college. By taking field trips to hospitals, the girls discovered how important and interesting nursing is. Because the opportunities in this field are so great these girls will have a wonderful career ahead of them.

The aim of the new members is to have their photography skill developed enough so they can assume responsibilities and perform the duties as Senior High Photo Club members.

The Senior High Photo Club is under the direction of Mr. E. Erickson. Their purpose is fulfilled through educational meetings, taking pictures of activities, membership campaigns and by a miniature golf booth at the Carnival. Inter-school Play Days are the most interesting of all of the activities of GAA. At these "Play Days" the girls of one school compete against the girls of other schools in various sports.

All girls who are Sophomores, Juniors or Seniors may become members. Letters, bars and pins are awarded at the end of the year, for active participation and regular attendance.

The purpose of the club is to "promote a growing appreciation of the joys and satisfaction of homemaking."

Eight members went to the district convention at Patrick Henry High School in November. In March, four members went to the state convention at the Leamington Hotel. May of this year, the FHA had their annual Mother and Daughter banquet at which they installed their new officers.

Debate

The purpose of the Debate Club is to improve speaking ability and to adopt problem solving techniques in the members.

The subject this year was "Resolve: that direct economic aid to individual nations should be limited to technical assistance and disaster relief."

Debaters participated in five contests during the first year of debate activity at Mounds View. Although they did not do well in their first debates, they gradually improved until they won half of them in the regional contest. During the year they debated against teams from all over the Twin Cities area and from other parts of Minnesota.

World Affairs

The World Affairs Club was formed under the direction of Mr. Hillborn in the 1957-58 school year. The purpose of this club is to promote better understanding of world affairs.

The club has made field trips to the World Affairs Institute at Hamline University, the Edina-Morningside High School World Affairs Club, and the University of Minnesota World Affairs Center. Most of the members plan to compete in the Minneapolis Star World Affairs Contest.

Creative Writing

A new club organized under Mrs. Morton, to stimulate and encourage creative writing. The members of the Creative Writing Club read and discussed stories, read examples of their own writing, and did impromptu writing.

One of the members, Doug Jennes, won second place in the Ramsey County Medical Association essay contest.

The year ended with a successful picnic at Bob Pine's.

Book Club

The Book Club was organized this year in order to increase the amount, the range, and the pleasure of our personal reading. The club uses two methods to accomplish this. It offers cheap paper bound editions of good teenage literature for sale at twenty-five and thirty-five cents. Secondly, it meets twice a month in the library. Here the students have an opportunity to browse at leisure, to have help from our advisor in the selection of books and to just enjoy reading in the pleasant atmosphere our library offers.

Jr. Jotter

The staff of the Jr. Jotter, under the direction of Mrs. Thomas and Mr. Eggar, has been very active this year. Since last September the editors and writers have put many hours of their time into printing the four issues of the paper.

The first issue covered mainly fall events, the second covered Christmas, the third included Valentines day and Washington's birthday, and the fourth was a one page leaflet including a few "before vacation" items.

All of the papers received compliments and some helpful suggestions for improving the "Jr. Jotter."

The staff hopes that these suggestions and a more experienced staff can be used to print an even better paper next year at the new junior high.

Modern Dance

A Modern Dance Club was formed this year, under the direction of Miss Swanson. By working together on modern dance techniques and compositions, the girls learn poise and coordination. It helps to further develop an interest in modern dancing.

They have presented a dance review for the women faculty members and three dance compositions for the P.T.A. This spring, to complete a successful year of enjoyment and learning, they had an "End-of-year" picnic.

Language Club

The Language Club is made up of students from the French, Spanish and Latin classes who wish to learn more about the life and culture in foreign countries. Interested students who are not taking a language are also welcome.

During the 1957-58 the meetings were held on the first Thursday of the month. Speakers, films and slides were enjoyed by the members. Mrs. Palmer was in charge of the group.

A.F.S.

Promoting good will through exchange of students, is the purpose of the American Field Service.

This year Mounds View welcomed its first A.F.S. friends from abroad. Francoise Menes came from Marseille, France and Zaky Saleh from Jakarta, Indonesia. These two will always be remembered by us at Mounds View.

All A.F.S. members worked hard in making the annual Carnival a smashing success. This was the largest and best one we have had and hope it's not the last.

Carolyn Hinmon, class of 1959, became Mounds View's first participant in the American Abroad program. She spent the summer with a family in Germany.

Stunning costumes symbolize the feature section. During the tense moments of the homecoming coronation we looked wide-eyed at the beautiful formals of the queen candidates.

Valentines Day brought another coronation and more spectacular dresses.

On prom night the gym glistened with each girl in her formal and each boy in his white dinner jacket or suit.

The white wedding dress worn by Marilee Dorman in THE WILLOW AND I will always be remembered.

Dresses and heels for girls and suits for boys seemed very appropriate for the junior-senior and athletic banquets.

Homecoming

"Autumn Leaves" filled the air as excitement mounted in the auditorium on Coronation Night. To the melody of "Pomp and Circumstance" Mr. Football and queen candidates walked up the aisle to the long awaited stage. Chosen as Mr. Football was Fred McSherry. Anxiety rose as Fred paced back and forth in front of the queen candidates. Then the moment arrived. Fred stopped in front of our new Homecoming queen, Kathie Mickschl.

The following day the Mustangs defeated the Anoka Tornadoes in the most thrilling game of the season. A dance climaxed the evening.

Carnival

Clowns, concessions, and food galore! These all bring back memories of fun-filled events during our annual carnival, sponsored by A.F.S.

If you were looking for a friend without success, chances are he was locked up in the Jail. With the rifle range, miniature golf, fortune-telling, and various other booths, much fun and entertainment was provided for young and old throughout the evening.

Plays

During the year, the Drama Club, under the direction of Mr. Scribner, presented three plays. The first one was the fairy tale "Snow White" starring Betty Gerlitz. One performance was given at Mounds View and the cast also toured all grade schools in our area with the play.

Chosen as the one-act play for the district contest was "The Marriage Proposal," a Russian comedy. The cast was made up of three members, Judy Bjorke, Ellis Ohnstad, and Chuck Gribble. Their production received an "Excellent" rating.

"The Willow and I" was the annual spring play presented by the Drama Club this year. The play was double casted and gave two evening performances.

Crossing the curved white bridge over the rippling stream of blue, we entered the "Oriental Gardens." In the distance was a lighted mural of Mount Fuji, surrounded with blossoming cherry trees. To our right, sitting on a pedestal in all his splendor was Buddha, where we stopped to give a silent prayer. Girls in swirling skirts of net and nylon with their escorts in suits and crisp white jackets, danced to the music of Don Moe's band. During intermission we stopped at the enchanting tea house where refreshments were served by coolies.

As the music faded in the background, we left the gardens. The end of an evening of paradise.

Speakers were Junior and Senior class presidents, Mike Bauerschmidt and John McClung.

After the banquet, an Awards Assembly followed in the theater where scholarships, merit awards, and outstanding senior awards were presented to students of the Senior Class.

Cheerleaders

Yeah! Rah! Rah! Team! These were familiar shouts heard many times at the football and basketball games during the season. Cheering the teams on to victory were the six peppy, ever-loyal "A" squad cheerleaders: Captain Mary Lou Marren, Esther Prechtel, Peg Eisenman, Joyce Clasen, Janet Clasen, and Sandy Hong. With their mascot, Melvin Mustang, they added to the spirit and enthusiasm of everyone at Mounds View.

letics

School spirit surged to a new high at Mounds View this year. From the first football game in the fall through the last tennis match in the spring, Mustangs ran, kicked, shot, dribbled, putted and jumped with new found enthusiasm.

Everytime they played they realized the benefits of participating in competition. While they were striving to do their best in winning the game, the spectators were giving their lungs full scale practice. The sportsmen of Mounds View were cheered when they won and sympathized with when they lost.

Players, coaches and fans were involved in the excitement of the athletic program. The colorful year was jammed with many thrilling nights — some happy, and some sad, but all fun!

Football

For the first time since entering the Suburban Conference, the Mustangs brought home the Suburban Championship. The champs had an overall record of seven wins and one loss.

One of the most exciting games of the season was our Homecoming game against Anoka. The Mustangs tasted victory 7—6.

A perfect record was scored by the Stillwater game, 34—33. Still in the lead, the Mustangs went on to beat Hastings.

The Columbia Heights game was the deciding factor in whether we would receive the Suburban Championship. When the victory came, 40—7, it was ours.

Six men placed on the all-conference team. They were Fred McSherry, Bruce Perry, Lenny Kloncz, Ron Sweeley, Gary Montain, and LeRoy Goldeman.

Many hours of hard work were put in by the "B" football and freshman squads this year, hoping that soon they would work their way up to the varsity. These boys practiced every night after school just as the varsity did. They also had some scheduled games against the squads of the Suburban Conference. Their record for this season was one win and four losses.

Tense final seconds, bringing victory or defeat. A pause, a swish, and then a flicker on the scoreboard.

Endless afternoons of exhausting practice, the sharp trill of a whistle, jitters in the first game, and the harsh blast of a buzzer are the memories of our team.

Although the Mustangs did not have a very successful season record-wise, the boys feel that much was gained by the players' besides a victory of points. The Mustangs placed seventh in the conference with five wins and twelve losses.

One of the most exciting games of the season was our defeat over Alexander Ramsey. The score, 44—41.

Coached by Mr. Anderson, the Mustangs' wrestling squad compiled a very successful season during 1957-1958. Proof of this success is an excellent record of eleven wins and three losses. The Mustangs came only five shy of winning the regional meet at Hastings.

One of the closest and most thrilling meets was the defeat of White Bear, 20—19.

With four returning lettermen, LeRoy Goldeman, Dan Hassel, Elwood Bolander, and Gordy Goldeman, it proved to be a very successful season.

"Play offs, here we come!" This was the yell of the spirited "Icemen" before every game. Three periods of hard skating and shooting, each game, resulted in a better-than-last season record of thirteen wins and six losses.

Interest in hockey reached a new high at Mounds View and in the Suburban Conference in 1957-1958.

Twenty-five boys showed initial interest in hockey and the same number of boys finished the season. The team was able to place second in the Suburban Conference, showing a successful season.

The squad is looking forward next year to an equally successful season with returning Dave Rupple, Jerry Ashbach, and Terry Carpenter. Graduating members of the team are Dan Banbery, Dennis Norbeck, Tom Wohlberg, John Koppy, John McClung, Bruce Perry, and John Christenson.

Diamondmen

Flashing spikes in a cloud of dust...the crack of a bat...rhythmic movements of the pitcher... three and two, full count.

Big things were expected of this year's Mustangs baseball team. As the 1957 team won the Suburban Championship, so tried the 1958 team, and their exhausted efforts were not in vain when they won the game with South St. Paul.

The 1958 diamondmen of Mounds View tried very successfully to uphold the championship with six of the regular players not returning to practice. Four Mustangs blasted opposing pitchers. They were Dan Bambery, Fred McSherry, Ray Gnetz, and Dan McNeill. Last year's record was seven wins and four losses compared with this year's record of twelve wins and five losses.

Track

Muscles tensed, a gun sounded, Many men leaped into action and sped down the black cinder track...

Track this year included such events as the 100 yard dash, 220, 440, 880, and the mile. The field events were the pole vault, broad jump, high jump, shot put, and the discus.

Although, when the first meeting was called, early in the spring, the turn out was small, but later it grew until thirty boys were practicing. The boys derived much benefit from practicing at the University of Minnesota fieldhouse, because they worked with other boys from other schools and learned of other's technique's and mistakes.

Mounds View placed sixth in the conference, fourth in relays, and sixth in District 14, making a very successful season.

Cross-country consists of duel and triangular meets. This year's team, composed of four members, gave tough competition to their opponents.

Tennis

A sphere sizzling through the air...the smack of a racket...

The 1958 varsity tennis team, coached by Mr. Nyhus, placed toward the middle of the conference.

When the netmen reported for court practice last spring, there were eight returning lettermen. With intense practice and many hours spent on the hard court, the team played in touch competition and came out with a record of three wins and four losses.

Dear Verg,

September '58"

Best of luck and success always to the best friend a person could have. I'll never forget all the fun times we have had together. and I'm real tuff cuz we're not in any classes again this year. Aren't you? I know through, that we will still have loads of fun this year. Prom and all, and just wait until next year.

Remember the night my car wouldn't start and your brother hot wired it. And then all those crazy P.J. parties, say nothing of all the others. I'll never forget.

Stay as you are Vergie, there's no need for a change, and a certain someone I know will someday wise up to the fact.

Love, luck and happiness to my best friend. "Nanc"

P.S. In case you don't remember Barry

Marriage of Maryanne Stusek - what a blow - your misfortunes - if you know what I mean & also mine with Dick Keller - our talk last night - our history project for Wed - leisure - our good hearty laughs at both your house & mine - the night I told about my uncles ailments.

What a riot this past year has been!

Well - from the looks of things it'll be along for the fun & next year too.

Let's hope our friendship continues forever & we keep having such good times!

Here's to a wonderful future for you, Dug! (Hah!)

Love,

"Kick"

Sept. 18th 1958.

Dear Virgie,

There are so many things that are better understood than spoken — if you know what I mean! I think you probably know my feelings about very possible subject better than anyone else except my mother. It's great to have a friend that'll tell you when you do something right — serious when you do something wrong — give & take suggestions — someone that will do things for you & that's a pleasure to do things for.

We've really had some good times — no need to relate about Wood Lake ... the night we went to Frederic — our trips to St. Anthony —

Let's have fun in Spanish 6 hours this year. Bobby

Virgie,
We will probably have fun cutting up little things 6th hour, don't you think? I hope to get to know you better this year. Success in all you do. Jane

Virgie,
Don't know you very well but hope
to get to know you.
Ron Erickson

Virgie,
Glad we're to be up-n-coming seniors. I hope you make as much fun next year as this last month.
Have a live
ave. Patty

As the pages of our scrapbooks slowly close, the never ending past fades into the always present future. It stands before us wide and challenging and we must face it with enthusiasm, confidence and determination.

We will look forward to our future, for it is here where our hopes and fears are met and conquered. Each experience we have will make our lives richer.

As we close the cover of our 1958 Vista, our memories, thoughts and dreams will not diminish. Remembering them we will look forward to more accomplishments, excessive happiness and further success.

Remember!! Our future is our destiny.

Vergie Behrens Sept. '58

Hey!
Well, next year you're going to have to go it alone - I'll be gone - Bigbee - Ha-Ha-Ha!
Make the most of your last year and have a ball. I hope we get together in the future years-after I've gone to St Cloud - I'm afraid I won't see much of any one. Best of luck to my grand kid.

"Love"
